Since 1998 Indonesia also witnessed a successful transition to electoral democracy. Whether democracy will take root in a more substantial way depends on the extent to which a notion of citizenship can be reinforced. It is argued that this notion of citizenship can only be maintained through the strengthening of the rule of law.

For Indonesia, the presidential and parliamentary elections taking place in April will be a key event in 2019. And the big question, of course, is who will win at the polls and occupy the Istana in Jakarta for the next five years. While the coming presidential election may seem like a “rematch” between Joko “Jokowi” Widodo and Prabowo Subianto, as both
